Shareholders should not assume that Fund distributions represent net profit. Income may be distributed regardless of whether such income will be treated as return of capital.
- 12-Month Yield is the sum of a fund's total trailing 12-month interest and dividend payments divided by the last month's ending share price (NAV) plus any capital gains distributed over the same period.
- SEC Yield is based on a 30-day (or one-month) period ending 03/31/2023 and is calculated by dividing the net investment income per share earned during the period by the maximum offering price per share on the last day of the period. For more information see SEC Form N-1A.
